Supply Chain Policy

Solaris Resources Inc. (“Solaris” or the “Company”) and its subsidiaries have both an ethical and a business imperative to be responsible corporate citizens. It is Solaris’ objective to partner with suppliers and contractors (collectively, “suppliers”) that share our values and meet our requirements as it relates to this Supply Chain Policy.

Building from our corporate responsibility principles and the ten Principles of the UN Global Compact on Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption, of which Solaris is a signatory, this document sets out the standards by which Solaris endeavours to require its suppliers to conduct their business. Solaris also strives to have suppliers take reasonable measures with their own suppliers to ensure that the standards set out in this document are implemented, as applicable.

In addition to complying with applicable laws and regulations in the countries where they do business, and applicable contractual obligations, Solaris looks for its suppliers to meet the following standards:

Business Conduct and Ethics - Suppliers shall:

- Comply with the Solaris corporate policies including the Code of Conduct and Business Ethics, Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy and Sustainability Policy.
- Comply with applicable laws, codes, rules and regulations of the jurisdictions in which they operate.
- Not engage in any form of corrupt activity, and adopt policies and procedures that ensure compliance with applicable anticorruption laws.

Safety Culture - Suppliers shall:

- Establish and maintain a culture of safety to ensure compliance with applicable health and safety laws and regulations at all times.
- Encourage employees to be actively involved in the improvement of their health and safety.
- Comply with Solaris’ Health and Safety Policy, including site-specific health and safety policies and procedures.
- Provide appropriate training, resources and personal protection to ensure occupational hazards are minimized.
- Where Suppliers provide accommodation, facilities must be clean, safe and meet the basic needs of the workers and, where applicable, of their families.

Indigenous Peoples and Other Communities – Suppliers shall:

- Understand and support Solaris’ engagement with Indigenous Peoples and other communities as described in Solaris’ Indigenous Peoples Policy.
- Be aware of how their activities, goods and services may positively or negatively impact communities, including Indigenous communities and respond to issues that may arise with respectful dialogue and in recognition of local culture, heritage, and traditions.
- Proactively consult with Solaris to gain awareness of Solaris’ commitment and priorities in connection with Indigenous Peoples and other communities.

SOLARIS RESOURCES

TSX: SLS; OTCQB: SLSSF

- Be willing to work with Solaris, Indigenous Peoples and other communities to contribute to the well-being of the communities in which they operate, including minimizing environmental or other negative impacts and enabling capacity building, procurement, employment, contracting or other opportunities to benefit communities in which they operate.

Human Rights - Suppliers shall:

- Comply with Solaris's Human Rights Policy and uphold the protection of internationally recognized human rights.
- Support and respect the protection of internationally recognized human rights.
- Ensure they are not complicit in human rights abuses, including by knowingly providing assistance, encouragement or moral support that contributes to the perpetration of the abuse, tolerating such abuse, or remaining inactive or silent in the face of such abuse.
- Ensure that products manufactured or contracted to manufacture do not contain conflict minerals.

Labour Standards - Suppliers shall:

- Uphold freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining.
- Support the elimination of all forms of modern slavery including forced and compulsory labour.
- Support the effective abolition of child labour.
- Establish systems to ensure compliance with international standards and laws on modern slavery and the rights of children.
- Support the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Environment - Suppliers shall:

- Encourage the establishment and maintenance of environmental standards, procedures and controls to ensure compliance with applicable international standards, laws and regulations.
- Support a precautionary approach when there is reasonable suspicion of environmental harm.
- Encourage improvement of environmental and resource management such as reduce, reuse and recycle.
- Encourage the development and use of technologies that promote sustainable development, protect the environment, reduce pollution, increase recycling, and reduce waste.

On-site Activities

- In addition to complying with these standards, while on location at Solaris properties, suppliers must comply with applicable Solaris policies and procedures, including but not limited to those establishing health and safety, environment, and social standards, as may be more fully defined in their contract.
